I agree. I like watching it the day after so I can watch it at 18%-39% faster, depending on the segment. Heh. I also really liked the Jaron Lanier interview. I'm about a month behind.

Yeah. I think the show will decline. Broader audience and all that.

The parade of celebrities is really dull. That's why I like watching the day after on the internet ... get to skip that silliness. Unless, its someone really cool, like Niel DeGrasse Tyson.

I know!! But I am worried he'll spend even more time on interviews. One of my favorite things is the news format.

Holy crap. A reason to watch network TV?

I guess moves like this are possible when Viacom owns all the players...
