As they say in the NFL, "the call is under review".

Yep. The easiest solution is to let the AL go out next meeting ;-)

Thank you – Erik also sent this to me directly. A lot of food for thought here

The backbill for Dynegy is $9.7 million if we go back to 2010 as proposed by Florio. I will send this to Marcelo and follow-up with Gurbux.

Chris,

I understand Jason talked to you about getting some backbill estimates together for Commissioner Florio. The two alternative backbill dates Florio is considering are April XX 2010 when the DC Circuit Court issued its order on appeal, and November XX, 2011 when we filed AL 3591-E.

Jason is now on paternity leave, so please send these estimates to me and I will forward them to Florio.

Thanks,

Erik
