Subject: Re: R.13-09-011 Demand Response: Workshops versus Evidentiary Hearings

ALJ Hymes and Parties,

CLECA will not waive cross examination of the CAISO, TURN or EDF, and we believe at least two days of hearings will be necessary. Given that a threshold issue is the market integration costs (which we expect to be a major issue in the hearings along with the categorization of existing programs), it may make the most sense to have the two days of hearings first, with the incorporation of the June 2 applications on the costs of Rule 24 integration to inform the record.

There could be value in workshops, so long as the workshops result in a workshop report that is part of the record and produced with the opportunity for all parties to have input into that workshop report. We strongly recommend that the workshop set for this Monday afternoon, June 2, remain on the calendar and be used to organize the hearings and the workshops to be held the week of June 9.

The briefing schedule should also be revised to permit preparation of the workshop report for parties' use in briefing. CLECA proposes the following schedule for the workshop report and briefing:

- □□□□□□□□ June 23: Utilities distribute a draft report
- □□□□□□□□ June 30: Parties' file comments on the draft report
- □□□□□□□□ July 7: Parties file reply comments on the draft report
- □□□□□□□□ July 14: The final workshop report is entered into the record
- □□□□□□□□ July 25: Opening Briefs due
- □□□□□□□□ August 18: Reply Briefs due and submission of the record

Thank you for your consideration.

Nora Sheriff

Subject: R.13-09-011 Demand Response: Workshops versus Evidentiary Hearings

After reviewing the lists of facts in dispute served by the parties in this proceeding, I am concerned that our time may be better spent in workshops as opposed to hearings.

I would like to propose to the parties that instead of holding hearings the week of June 9, we hold a series of workshops that address most, if not all, of the issues listed by the parties. As SCE has suggested, these matters may be more appropriate for workshop rather than hearings.

If parties are willing to waive cross-examination of the testimony, we could spend the time in workshops. Or, in the alternative, if parties are willing to waive cross-examination of part of the testimony, we could spend part of our time in workshops and part in hearings.

In my proposed schedule below, we would cancel the June 2 workshop and roll it into the workshops below. In my review of the lists provided by the parties, a tentative schedule could be as follows:

- Day 1 (June 9)
 - AM - Phase II issues including cost recovery, back up generation, and the cost effectiveness protocols.
 - PM - CAISO Market Integration costs with presentations by the three utilities. PG&E, SDG&E and SCE would be prepared to provide an overview of the proposed costs of the Rule 24 Implementation.

- Day 2 (June 10)
 - AM - Categorization of current demand response programs including the characteristics of load modifying resources and supply resources
 - PM - Setting future demand response goals

- Day 3 (June 11)
 - AM - Demand Response Auction Mechanism and Resource Adequacy Matters
 - PM - 1/2 day evidentiary hearing where parties cross examine witnesses on remaining issues

- Day 4 (June 12) -- One additional day of evidentiary hearings

I would like to make a final determination on this by noon tomorrow (Friday, May 30, 2014), so that we can reschedule the June 2 workshop, if appropriate. Parties should email me with their thoughts on this proposal as soon as possible (the earlier the better) and include a statement of whether they are willing to waive cross examination of any or all witnesses.

Thank you, Judge Hymes
