Subject: Re: R.13-09-011 Demand Response: Workshops versus Evidentiary Hearings

Dear Judge Hymes:

EDF agrees that most if not all of the issues identified in this proceeding would be better addressed through workshops and would therefore be willing to waive cross examination at evidentiary hearings. However, if your final determination is that some or all issues should be addressed through evidentiary hearings, then EDF reserves the right to cross examine witnesses on the issues reserved for hearings.

EDF respectfully requests that written presentations at workshops be incorporated into the record by ruling, unless the presenting party objects. Oral statements at the workshop should likewise be transcribed for the record. Incorporating information into the record would make a more robust record and should make it easier to write post-workshop comments.

EDF also requests that the second day of the workshop include specific consideration of the use of geographic and time-variant load-modifying tariffs to advance DR goals, and that the third day include discussion of the use of RA and/or other mechanisms to motivate the deployment of all types of DR.

Thank you for your consideration of these comments.

Michael Panfil
