Subject: RE: R.13-09-011 Demand Response: Workshops versus Evidentiary Hearings - NRDC Response

Dear Judge Hymes,

NRDC agrees that most of the issues identified in this proceeding would be better addressed through workshops and would therefore be willing to waive cross examination at evidentiary hearings. However, if your final determination is that some or all issues should be addressed through evidentiary hearings, then NRDC reserves the right to cross examine witnesses on the issues reserved for hearings.

NRDC respectfully requests that written presentations at workshops be incorporated into the record by ruling, unless the presenting party objects. Oral statements at the workshop should likewise be transcribed for the record. Incorporating information into the record would make a more robust record and should make it easier to write post-workshop comments.

Thank you for your consideration.

Pierre Bull
