Subject: Re: R.13-09-011 Demand Response: Workshops versus Evidentiary Hearings

Hello, Your Honor.

While it is obvious that the exact procedures - as they may apply to certain issues in this case - will need to be hammered out, Consumer Federation of California (CFC) agrees that certain issues in this matter may be more efficiently addressed in a workshop format rather than an evidentiary hearing format. We also agree that it in all likelihood some issues will have to be explored in a more formal, evidentiary hearing. That said, we have no objection to exploring alternative procedures as outlines in your May 29, 2014 email.

Subject: R.13-09-011 Demand Response: Workshops versus Evidentiary Hearings

After reviewing the lists of facts in dispute served by the parties in this proceeding, I am concerned that our time may be better spent in workshops as opposed to hearings.

I would like to propose to the parties that instead of holding hearings the week of June 9, we hold a series of workshops that address most, if not all, of the issues listed by the parties. As SCE has suggested, these matters may be more appropriate for workshop rather than hearings.

If parties are willing to waive cross-examination of the testimony, we could spend the time in workshops. Or, in the alternative, if parties are willing to waive cross-examination of part of the testimony, we could spend part of our time in workshops and part in hearings.

In my proposed schedule below, we would cancel the June 2 workshop and roll it into the workshops below. In my review of the lists provided by the parties, a tentative schedule could be as follows:

- Day 1 (June 9)
 - AM - Phase II issues including cost recovery, back up generation, and the cost effectiveness protocols.
 - PM - CAISO Market Integration costs with presentations by the three utilities. PG&E, SDG&E and SCE would be prepared to provide an overview of the proposed costs of the Rule 24 Implementation.

- Day 2 (June 10)
 - AM - Categorization of current demand response programs including the characteristics of load modifying resources and supply resources

- PM - Setting future demand response goals
- Day 3 (June 11)
 - AM - Demand Response Auction Mechanism and Resource Adequacy Matters
 - PM - 1/2 day evidentiary hearing where parties cross examine witnesses on remaining issues
- Day 4 (June 12) -- One additional day of evidentiary hearings

I would like to make a final determination on this by noon tomorrow (Friday, May 30, 2014), so that we can reschedule the June 2 workshop, if appropriate. Parties should email me with their thoughts on this proposal as soon as possible (the earlier the better) and include a statement of whether they are willing to waive cross examination of any or all witnesses.

Thank you, Judge Hymes
