Dear Energy Division Tariff Unit

Subject: Withdrawal of Advice Letter 4339-E, Schedules NEM, NEMV, NEMVMASH and NEMFC Changes in Compliance With Assembly Bill 327

In accordance with General Order 96-B, Section 5.3, Pacific Gas and Electric Company (PG&E) hereby withdraws the above-referenced advice letter without prejudice.

On December 31, 2013, PG&E submitted Advice 4339-E to revise its Net Energy Metering (NEM) tariffs to comply with Assembly Bill (AB) 327 and Decision (D.) 13-11-026 vacating D.12-05-036, Decision Regarding Calculation of the Net Energy Metering Cap. This advice letter is still pending Energy Division approval; however, Energy Division has requested for PG&E to withdraw Advice 4339-E due to the issuance of D.14-03-041, Decision Establishing a Transition Period Pursuant to Assembly Bill 327 for Customers Enrolled in Net Energy Metering Tariffs, which further revises the net energy metering cap language in the tariffs submitted in Advice 4339-E. Therefore, PG&E respectfully withdraws Advice 4339-E.¹

In accordance with General Order 96-B, Section 5.3, this withdrawal letter is being submitted in the same manner and served on the same persons as the advice letters.

Sincerely,

Vice President, Regulatory Relations
