Does he still have that Porsche? He loved that car. He looked way better in it than Don Johnson in his Ferrari.

No, he's struggling. I think that it's hard to get hired with something like that – when they get your resume they google you. Only gov't and utilities are not allowed to take that into account.

Nope. Haven't met.

Did he get a job he likes?

Have you met his wife? She's awesome. Not quite as attractive as him, but close, and just sunny and nice.

That's an achievable goal, but pretty aggressive at more than a pound per week. You're gonna be really hungry! Try "lunner" – it really works.

Well, I'm the opposite. Feeling overfed. I am planning to have lunch today (soup with Bill Stock!) then 1000cal for supper to get myself back on track. I want to lose 5-7 by 31May.

I'm so dang hungry! I've stopped tracking my food intake, and I just bumped up to 145, but I think it is about to drop to a new set point again (given my recorded history of a quick bump up before falling to a new low).

I really depleted the tank on Saturday. I wake up every morning starving. I have three waffles with hella butter after my ride, and then I'm starving again by 10am. I'm devouring all the snacks I keep in my office at an alarming rate! Just polished off my rice crackers and I'm already into the buffalo jerkey.
