Subject: RE: Information for Safety Leadership Workshop - This Friday

Hi Meredith,

I hate to do this and be this flakey. First my apologies. Second, we're working pretty hard to finalize a safety strategic plan for Comr Picker and I'm not sure we'll be done by this Friday. As such, I'm gonna have to ask to bail and please accept my apologies. I'm usually not flakey at all with work stuff, but I just have to really focus on this plan.
