Subject: R1211005 (CSI) Email Ruling Granting, in Part, Motion for Party Status by Western Municipal Water District

To Service List for R1211005:

Ms. Akins, the June 5, 2014 motion for party status by Western Municipal Water District is granted, in part.

Prior to June 5, 2014, Western Municipal Water District together with several parties submitted documents to the CPUC Docket Office for filing in this proceeding. These documents included the following: reply comments on December 23, 2013, response to information submitted with reply comments on January 6, 2014, opening comments on a proposed decision on March 12, 2014, and reply comments on a proposed decision on March 17, 2014.

Western Municipal Water District incorrectly states that the comments and response cited above qualify as comments in response to a rulemaking under Rule 1.4 and, as a result, it obtained party status through the act of filing such comments. The above cited comments were filed in response to an assigned Commissioner's ruling and a proposed decision, not a rulemaking. As such, Western Municipal Water District did not obtain party status by filing such comments or response.

Moreover, while some of these comments and response were accepted and filed by the CPUC Docket Office, Western Municipal Water District did not achieve party status by the Docket Office's act of accepting those filings. The Docket Office has no authority to grant party status.

No hearings or prehearing conferences are currently scheduled in this proceeding. Rule 1.4(a)(3). Therefore, at this point in the proceeding party status can only be obtained by a party filing a motion requesting party status from the Administrative Law Judge per Rule 1.4(a)(4).

This ruling grants the June 5, 2014 motion for party status and also serves to correct the record to note that Western Municipal Water District's name incorrectly appears on the comments and response filed prior to June 5, 2014. With this noted correction, Docket Office may accept for filing the above-cited comments and response.

Western Municipal Water District is a party to this proceeding as of June 5, 2014.

The Docket Office shall formally file this ruling.
