Kristin –

Good menu choice! Thanks for the note. I'll make sure you get x-ed off the list.

Have a good week.

yours,

Sidney, I attended this event but did not eat or drink anything specifically so that I would not have to reimburse you for food and drink or claim it on my Form 700. Thanks, Kristin.

CPUC colleagues –

I'm writing you because you attended the April 16 PG&E event at the Delancy Street Foundation, we served food, and this food, if you ate it, constitutes a gift.

From what I understand, the CPUC's policies require you to reimburse this gift. And if you reimburse PG&E, our midyear lobbying report will show that it has been reimbursed, which I think would be best. So, please do two things by the end of June, sooner if you can:

1) Reply to this email, and tell me whether or not you ate anything, and if you did, which of these categories you would call it:

Breakfast -- $10.27

Coffee/Tea – $3.85

Lunch – $21.82

Reception -- $16.99

2) Reimburse PG&E. You can send a check, payable to PG&E, to

Redacted

You could also hand deliver the check to me. And, if it's easier for you, you could pay me cash, and I could pay PG&E. Please let me know in your email reply which works best for you.

In the future, PG&E will design the event so this gift issue is clearer, and so that you can pay right there at the event.

If you have any questions, please call me at Redacted.

Thank you!

yours, sid
