Subject: Notice: Update to PG&E's External CCA Webpage (E-4250)

Dear Gurbux, Jonathan, and William:

In compliance with Resolution E-4250, we are providing notification of an update to PG&E's Community Choice Aggregation (CCA) webpage. We would like to thank MCE and SCP for their partnership during this latest update.

PG&E's CCA webpage can be accessed here. The webpage includes both SCP's and MCE's rate comparisons. Please note that we have updated the webpage layout to align with PG&E's brand guidelines and to provide customers with an easy-to-read format. Also attached is a PDF of the rate comparisons with MCE, which outlines the text changes to the webpage and the latest rate comparison data.

I am available to answer any clarifying questions that you may have.

Best,
