Don,

Just want to coordinate how PG&E can obtain a copy of the RO CD when the Proposed Decision is released.

John Hughes has just let us know that he had a procedural discussion with ALJ Pulsifer and that the PD might come tomorrow. It is important to us that we get a copy of the CD as soon as possible. Can we have someone pick up the RO CD directly from you when ALJ Pulsifer releases the PD?

Thanks,

Hi Don,

Thanks for reaching out. Your note is fine with me. [Redacted] should be the PG&E contact in your email. I have filled out the blanks in your email below.

Subject: Workpapers on R/O Modeling; Draft Note to the Service List

[Redact]

After the proposed decision is mailed in the PG&E GRC, workpapers supporting the results of operations modeling will be issued to PG&E and ORA, and a notice of availability will be sent to the service list in the proceeding, so that other parties can request a copy of the workpapers.

I expect that the workpapers will be identified as Late-Filed Exhibit ALJ-1, and that they will be contained on a CD or DVD. They will include a copy of PG&E's results of operations model and other related data.

Below is a draft note that I intend to send to the service list after the PD is publicly issued. Can PG&E please let me know if the note is OK, and what person from PG&E should be the designated contact when parties request the workpapers?

Also, could PG&E please arrange to send copies of workpapers to those parties who make a written email request for them as described in the draft note below?

Thanks,

-Don Lafrenz, Energy Division, 415-703-1063

These workpapers are identified as Late-Filed Exhibit ALJ-1 and have been served on the Office of Ratepayer Advocates and Pacific Gas & Electric Co.

Other parties may obtain the workpapers by contacting me at donald.lafrenz@cpuc.ca.gov and
