

API Recommended Practice 1173

Pipeline Safety Management System Requirements

- Draft issued in March, 2014 for public review & comment
- Provides guidance to pipeline operators for developing and maintaining a pipeline safety management system including:
 - Identification of the proper sequence of a series of activities
 - Monitoring and measuring the effectiveness of the activities performed
 - Applying changes or corrections to those activities as needed

