From: Campbell, Michael Sent: 7/17/2014 9:30:37 AM To: Dietz, Sidney (/O=PG&E/OU=Corporate/cn=Recipients/cn=SBD4) Cc: Bcc: Subject: RE: Went smaller I tried to use a metal tape measure. It wasn't very good. ----Original Message----From: Dietz, Sidney [mailto:SBD4@pge.com] Sent: Thursday, July 17, 2014 9:28 AM To: Campbell, Michael Subject: Re: Went smaller I bought a new tape measure when I started this. My old one was stretched and wrong. Works great. Do I seem terse? Blame the thumb keyboard. ---- Original Message -----From: Campbell, Michael [mailto:Michael.Campbell@cpuc.ca.gov] Sent: Thursday, July 17, 2014 09:08 AM Pacific Standard Time To: Dietz, Sidney Subject: Re: Went smaller Nice. Congrats! I bought some shirts online this week. I have to send them back. Too big. I don't know what size to get anymore, and my choices are more limited than before. I'm staying at. 145#, but I keep getting leaner. > On Jul 17, 2014, at 8:48 AM, "Dietz, Sidney" <SBD4@pge.com> wrote: > I'm wearing the next lower size shirt today. Probably 1/4 in small. I look like an h&m shopper. Probably should wear it mealtimes. > -----> Do I seem terse? Blame the thumb keyboard.

> PG&E is committed to protecting our customers' privacy.

> To learn more, please visit http://www.pge.com/about/company/privacy/customer/

PG&E is committed to protecting our customers' privacy.

To learn more, please visit http://www.pge.com/about/company/privacy/customer/