Karen and Kyle –

Well, we weren't able to get either Nora or the customer on the phone. The good news is that we have some time – the customer has some more time, and we can try again on Monday. We will try to get them on the phone simultaneously, which seems to be the holdup.

yours, sid

Karen and Kyle –

I've asked for the assistance of our customer outreach team on this. We are hoping to do a three-way call with Nora and the customer and our customer-relations person, and see if we can get a payment arrangement established. This seems like the same problem with the same customer that we had before – looking at the email below, it seems that the customer was not live on the phone. That's why I'm hoping the three-way call helps.

Karen –

Sorry for the trouble. I've asked the team, and they're right on it. I'll get back to you.

Hi Sid,

We are still having problems with CSRs not assisting through the CHANGES CBO, even with the customer on the phone. This email chain is in regard to a fairly urgent bill payment problem.

Any advice? We are getting frustrated.

Thanks,

Karen

Hi Alejandra and Kyle,

Nora tried again today to resolve the [Redacted] case with PG&E. She had the client with her on the phone, who gave permission to speak for her, and PG&E will not speak with Nora. This is the case in which PG&E said payment arrangements needed to be made by July 19. There have been several attempts. What should we do?

Casey

Okay, just dealt with a rep named armon in san jose, he refused to speak with me, even when client is sitting here and told him she gives permission to speak with me, he stated it is policy not to speak with anyone only client
