Subject: R1309011 Email Ruling Providing Guidance Regarding Testimony

Pursuant to statements made during the August 11, 2014 hearing, this Ruling provides guidance to the parties regarding the testimony in Rulemaking 13-09-011. Parties have waived requests for additional hearings in this proceeding. Furthermore, several parties have stated an intent to waive rights to cross-examination of the testimony. As described below, this Ruling provides instructions to parties regarding three separate categories of testimony: 1) served testimony that has been marked and identified on the record but not received into evidence; 2) served testimony that has not been marked nor identified on the record; and 3) testimony that may still be served. This Ruling also clarifies the identification of certain testimony previously marked during the June 9 and 12, 2014 evidentiary hearings.

First, in order to clarify the record, the following corrections and clarifications to the hearing transcripts are necessary. On page 5 of the June 9, 2014 evidentiary hearing transcript Vol. 1, lines 21-22 identify exhibits as SDG&E-02, SDG&E-03, SDG&E-04, SDG&E-05, and SDG&E-06. These are incorrectly labelled and, instead, should be SGE-02, SGE-03, SGE-04, SGE-05, and SGE-06. Furthermore, as indicated in Vol. 1, on page 6, lines 5 through 23, only SGE-04, SGE-05, and SGE-06 were received into evidence on June 9, 2014. SGE-02 and SGE-03 were received into evidence on June 12, 2014, as indicated in the June 12, 2014 transcript, Vol. 2 at p. 51.

1. Served testimony previously marked and identified on the record, but not received into evidence.

During the evidentiary hearings on June 12, 2014, several pieces of served testimony were marked and identified on the record but not received into evidence. The following table lists these pieces of testimony:

If parties desire to enter this testimony into evidence, a motion from the parties requesting to do so shall be filed no later than Monday, August 18, 2014. Joint motions are highly encouraged. I will then allow three days (August 21, 2014) for parties to file any objections to the motion(s).

2. Testimony previously served but neither marked, identified nor received into evidence.

During the evidentiary hearings on June 12, 2014, two pieces of served testimony were neither marked, identified, nor received into evidence. The testimony in this category includes the following, which I have preliminarily identified and marked:

Exhibit Date

No. Served Witness(es) Description

ALA5/6/2014	Thompson	Frader-Alarm.Com and EnergyHub's Prepared Testimony of Seth Frader-Thompson Thompson Response to the Joint Ruling and Revised Scoping Memo Issued April 2, 2014 on Phase 2 and 3 of the Demand Response OIR

Neither Alarm.Com/Energy Hub nor Opower were present at either the June 9 or June 12 hearings. If either Alarm.com/EnergyHub or Opower desire to enter this testimony into evidence, a motion requesting to do so shall be filed no later than Monday, August 18, 2014. The Motion should NOT include the testimony as an attachment. I will also allow three days (August 21, 2014) for parties to file any objections to the motion(s).

3. Testimony not previously served, marked, identified or received into evidence.

During the August 11, 2014 hearing, the Office of Ratepayer Advocates (ORA) stated that it intends to serve additional testimony in regards to the new aspect of the Demand Response Auction Mechanism that parties will include in briefs. No later than Monday, August 18, 2014, ORA shall file a motion requesting to identify, mark, and admit into evidence the new testimony. ORA should NOT attach the testimony to the motion. Again, parties will have three days (August 21, 2014) to file any objections to this motion.

The Docket Office shall formally file this Ruling.
