Thx all. I'll try to put together a short draft for all to review in the next couple days. There will be nothing new in it....

I agree. Southwest Gas is interested in filing jointly if there is an opportunity to do so.

Thanks,

Cathy

Thanks. I am checking to see whether ORA would be interested in filing jointly, but I agree that either way, the responses that relate to matters covered in the settlement should be consistent.

Thanks – it would be helpful to be consistent in either joint or separate comments.

Hi Chris,

We are already in the midst of preparing a draft that comprehensively addresses all of the issues raised in the Scoping Memo. I am not sure how soon it can be ready to share, but may be able to share our draft when I get back from vacation next week (around Wednesday or Thursday).

All, our deadline for "opening comments" on Phase 1 issues is coming up a week from tomorrow, Aug 15. Would it be useful if we as settling parties filed short joint comments summarizing and referencing our proposed settlement as our position for our comments? I would be happy to draft if you wanted to go with that approach.

Chris

Thx everyone for all your help with this settlement and Motion! In addition, I will shortly send you a pdf copy of the Settlement with the actual signatures by the 4 parties. Now on to the next milestone in getting a timely CPUC decision and approval of the settlement. Thx again!
