Subject: My bad

This is what happens when I try to schedule stuff for myself instead of getting Linda's help: I goofed. Sept 11 is Back to School night - not sure how I didn't see it on my calendar. I only have one left to go in my parent career and I'm not missing it. I can do drinks Tuesday night next week, or any day the following week except Tuesday the 16th, or you can go without me if it's too hard and I will totally understand.
