Summary: On June 5, 2000, Bruce Foster of Southern California Edison Company (Edison), attended an all party meeting with Cmmr. Lynch in San Francisco. Gene Rodrigues of Edison was also present. Foster recommended that the proposed decision (PD) should adopt the utilities' proposed earnings mechanism instead of deferring consideration of the mechanism. Foster suggested that the PD delve into program detail to an extent that is unwarranted. Rodrigues indicated that the magnitude of regulatory processes called for in the PD would divert the resources of the utilities and regulatory agencies away from the work required to implement successful program. Edison's representatives recommended that the Commission issue a simplified alternate.
