Summary: On July 29, 1997, Keith McCrea, attorney for the California Manufacturers Association (CMA), met with Cmmr. Knight, in San Francisco. Also present was: Bob Lane, advisor to Cmmr. Knight. McCrea stated that the alternate pages which attempt to establish a fixed PX price and a fixed CTC amount would likely lead to a number of problems and would require a complicated set of rules. McCrea stated that such a fixing of PX and CTC prices is unnecessary and that the market could accomplish whatever was needed through private contractual arrangements. McCrea urged the Commission to defer adoption of a specific approach until additional workshops can be held.
