8/12/97          A96-11-020          Pacific Gas and Electric Company, for authorization to sell Hunters Point, Morro Bay, Moss Landing, and Oakland generating plants and related assets.

Summary: On August 7, 1997, Kristel Frank, Director, Regulatory Relations, Pacific Gas and Electric Company (PG&E), spoke with James Hendry, advisor to Cmmr. Conlon. Frank stated that although the draft Phase 1A decision permits PG&E to commence an auction, it does not allow PG&E to accept bids. Frank stated that as part of the first stage of the auction, PG&E would need to accept "indicative bids." Frank stated that indicative bids would be used by PG&E to screen potential bidders financial and operational qualifications. Frank cited pages 2 and 5, and conclusion of law 5, and agreed that "final bids" should not be accepted until after the Commission has adopted a final negative declaration, but that this requirement should be clarified to apply only to final bids.

Barraza stated that Fresno was concerned that great hardship would result if the Commission considered the proposal to change the 209 area code, as set on the 8/1/97 agenda, before hearings are held on Fresno's complaint. Barraza stated that the change in area codes on public entities and businesses in Fresno and other counties in the southern half of the NPA 209 would have an adverse impact. Barraza stated that the impact of area code changes on Medic Alert could be reduced or eliminated.

Summary: On August 10, 1997, William Reed, Vice President of Regulatory and Governmental Affairs for San Diego Gas and Electricity (SDG&E), met with Cmmr. Conlon, at the Meridian Hotel in Coronado. Materials (attached to notice) consisting of the press releases concerning testimony filed with the CPUC and the acquisition of AIG Trading, were used. Reed stated that the acquisition by PE and Enova of AIG Trading Corp., a gas and power marketing company, was consistent with the goal of PE and Enova to compete in emerging markets through the offering of a broad range of energy products and services. Reed stated that PE and Enova would comply with the conditions contained in the 6/25 FERC order approving their merger. Reed stated that PE and Enova would request interim action by the Commission on the FERC merger conditions. Reed stated that an interim order from the Commission stating that if the merger were ultimately approved, the Commission would include requirements at least as strict as those offered by PE and Enova, would allow FERC to close out its docket and leave the final decision to the Commission.

Summary: On August 7, 1997, David Follett, attorney for Pacific Enterprises, spoke with ALJ Barnett, in San Francisco. Follett stated that Pacific Enterprises and Enova Corporation had executed an agreement to acquire AIG Trading Corp., a Connecticut-based gas and power marketing company. Follett stated that additional prepared testimony of an informational nature regarding the acquisition had also been served on all parties the evening before and that he would fax a copy to ALJ Barnett at the conclusion of the conversation. Follett stated that, by its nature, and specifically because AIG Trading Corp. owns no generation, gathering, pipeline, or utility facilities of any kind, the acquisition has no material effect on any of the issues before the Commission in the merger proceeding.
