GLOSSARY

After January 1, 1998, the California Public Utilities Commission is required by statute (SB 960) to categorize each case that comes before it. There are three categories, quasi-legislative, adjudicatory and ratesetting. If a case does not require hearings before it is resolved, the case is removed from the SB 960 category requirements. The legend below shows the abbreviation for each of the categories and provides a brief explanation.

- Q Quasi-legislative proceedings are proceedings that establish policy or rules (including generic ratemaking policy or rules) affecting a class of regulated entities, including those proceedings in which the Commission investigates rates or practices for an entire regulated industry or class of entities within the industry.
- A Adjudicatory proceedings are: (1) enforcement investigations into possible violations of any provision of statutory law or order or rule of the Commission; and (2) complaints against regulated entities, including those complaints that challenge the accuracy of a bill, but excluding those complaints that challenge the reasonableness of rates or charges, past, present, or future.
- RS Ratesetting proceedings are proceedings in which the Commission sets or investigates rates for a specifically named utility (or utilities), or establishes a mechanism that in turn sets the rates for a specifically named utility (or utilities). Ratesetting proceedings include complaints that challenge the reasonableness of rates or charges, past, present, or future.
- N/A Removed from the SB 960 category requirements.

9/18/98	R95-04-043	Rulemaking on the Commission's own motion into competition for local exchange service, and
	I95-04-044	Investigation on the Commission's own motion into competition for local exchange service.

Summary: AUGMENTATION REQUIRED.

On September 15, 1998, attorney Peter A. Casciato on behalf of Time Warner Connect met in three (3) consecutive sessions at CPUC with commissioners' advisors as follows: (1) with Lester Wong, advisor to Commission President Bilas, Jose Jimenez, advisor to Commissioner Conlon, and Dorothy Duda, advisor to Commissioner Knight (Ms Duda, telephone appearance only); (2) with Tim Sullivan, advisor to Commissioner Duque; and (3) with Fassile Fenikile, advisor to Commissioner Neeper. Mr. Casciato distributed to each official a copy of his client's filed comments on the draft alternate decision. In his oral communications, Mr. Casciato stated the draft alternate should not be adopted unless residential resellers could both order and bill for ILEC affiliate voice mail in parity with the ILEC.

Summary: On September 15, 1998, attorney Nick Selby called two PUC advisors and concurrently faxed them copies of a California court case. Mr. Selby stated his representation was on behalf of the "California Rights-of-Way Coalition" ("Coalition"), consisting of the ICG Telecom Group, Inc., AT&T Communications of California, Inc., MCI Telecommunications Corp, and AT&T Local Services. Mr. Selby initiated calls to Jose Jimenez, advisor to Commissioner Conlon, and Dorothy Duda, advisor to Commissioner Knight. Ms Duda was not in her office, and Mr. Selby's message was left by voice mail. The case faxed to both advisors was Salvaty v Falcon Cable Television (1985) 165 Cal.App.3d 798. Mr. Selby then said conclusion of law "6" of the 8/31/98 "Escutia" version of the revised draft decision was in conflict with the Salvaty case. He said the words "and the underlying property owner" should be deleted from the conclusion of law. Otherwise, Mr. Selby said, CLC's would be prevented from attaching utility support structures whenever utility poles or conduit systems happened to "dog leg" across private properties or run along shared property lines. This could limit CLC access to utility support structures, Mr. Selby said, thus eliminating any value in the decision for CLC's and damaging the development of facilities based competition in California.

9/18/98	R98-03-040	Commission Order Instituting Rulemaking, on the Commission's own motion, into the third triennial review of the regulatory framework adopted in Decision 89-10-031 for GTE California Incorporated and Pacific Bell.
	A98-02-003	Pacific Bell, for a third triennial review of the regulatory framework adopted in D89-10-031.

Summary: On September 15, 1998, three (3) Pacific Bell ("PacBell") representatives initiated a meeting with Commission President Bilas and his advisor, Lester Wong, and conveyed oral and written ex parte communications. The PacBell agents were James Callaway, William Blase, and Daniel McCarthy. Mr. McCarthy stated that PacBell found the draft NRF decision overall to be sound. He said the draft decision discussion of the productivity factor and earnings regulation supports elimination rather than suspension of these aspects of NRF. He said the Commission should resolve now the question of PBOP's in I90-02-047. The PacBell representative provided the commissioner and advisor copies of the draft and final Resolution No. T-16102 and a transcription of the 12/16/97 Commission conference which, he said, demonstrate the issues which were to be determined relative to PBOP's in I90-02-047 were to be prospective only.
