Summary: On November 3, 1998, Bruce Foster, Vice President of Southern California Edison Company (Edison) Regulatory Affairs, met with Cmmr. Knight, Cmmr. Bilas, and Cmmr. Conlon, in three separate meetings in San Francisco. At the meeting with Cmmr.

Knight also present was Bob Lane, advisor to Cmmr. Knight; at the meeting with Cmmr. Bilas - Julie Haligan, advisor to Cmmr. Bilas; and with Cmmr. Conlon - Jim Hendry, advisor to Cmmr. Conlon. Mike Hoover, Manager of Edison's Regulatory and Policy Affairs attended all three meetings. Edison representatives expressed concerns about the alternate decision regarding Section 369. Foster stated that although Edison still supports the alternate of Cmmr. Conon, the alternate of Cmmrs. Duque and Bilas would effectively ensure that the exemptions specified in Section 369, would only be allowed for incremental load that does not otherwise use the utility system.

	I95-04-044	Investigation on the Commission's own motion into competition for local exchange service.

Summary: On November 4, 1998, Pacific Bell ("PacBell") representatives Ron Sawyer and Dan Jacobsen initiated a meeting at CPUC with Lester Wong, advisor to Commission President Bilas, engaging therein in oral and written ex parte communications. The representatives stated that based on the Commission's ruling that Internet traffic is not interstate, interconnection agreements require CLEC's to pay intrastate access charges on toll free calls from PacBell end users to ISP modems that are physically located outside the 12 mile local calling area. PacBell stated that while some CLEC's may claim they are offering foreign exchange service, they are actually providing toll free calling unless they are covering the cost of transport. The written ex parte communications consisted of an eight (8) page handout. The first seven (7) pages were network schematics depicting local calling networks, interexchange calling networks, etc., and the eighth page an excerpt of remarks delivered to the Washington Metropolitan Cable Club by C. Michael Armstrong, Chairman and CEO of AT&T. One statement contained in the latter included: "Now some narrowband Internet service providers want the government to give them a free ride on those broadband pipes." The handout was attached to the filer's Notice of Ex Parte Communications.

Summary: On November 4, 1998, Pacific Gas & Electric ("PG&E") representative Jack Fallin initiated a telephone call to David Gamson, advisor to Commissioner Neepser. He stated that the existence of third-party transmission, recorded in many Commission decisions, is an undeniable fact. Mr. Fallin concluded interconnection through such transmission should not be ignored in a physical test.
