	I95-04-044	Investigation on the Commission's own motion into competition for local exchange service.

Summary: On November 12, 1998, an attorney representing AT&T Communications of California, Inc., ("AT&T") wrote a letter to all commissioners and certain PUC staff. The letter was written by Rachelle B. Chong of Coudert Brothers, Attorneys at Law, San Francisco, CA. Ms Chong's letter urges the Commission to adopt the staff's recommendation to deny Pacific Bell's ("PacBell") application for InterLATA authority in California inasmuch as PacBell has not met the requirements of § 271 of the Telecommunications Act of 1996. The letter states PacBell has failed to open its system to competition in areas such as operations support systems, collocation, and § 272 separate affiliate requirements

	I93-04-002	Commission Order Instituting Investigation on the Commission's own motion into open access and network architecture development of dominant carrier networks.

Summary: On November 12, 1998, Bill Blase, Vice President (Regulatory) of Pacific Bell ("PacBell") sent a letter to Jack Leutza, PUC's Telecommunications Division director, with copies of the letter to all commissioners and their telecommunications advisors. The short cover letter, with the salutation "Dear Jack," stated "...the purpose of this letter is to provide an update on Pacific Bell's collocation efforts." Attached were two summary sheets, one entitled "Pacific Bell Collocation Update" and the other "Denied Central Offices for Physical Collocation—California." Combined, the sheets provided statistics on the total number of collocation cages, the number of collocation requests granted in 1998, additional space made available, and the status of exhausted offices. In the packets sent to the commissioners, in addition to the material sent to Mr. Leutza, a short half page cover note was attached which said, in part: "Attached is information regarding Pacific Bell's collocation efforts in 1998...As you can see, extraordinary results have been achieved...Pacific Bell employees have almost killed themselves to handle this demand and this issue for our CLEC customers...Your consideration of this effort and the attached facts is appreciated."

Summary: On November 16, 1998, Pacific Gas & Electric ("PG&E") representative Les Guliassi wrote a two page letter to all of the commissioners. He said PG&E supports the proposed decision issued by Administrative Law Judge Malcolm on the SPURR/REMAC petition to modify D97-05-039. Further, the letter urges the commissioners, should they adopt the alternative decision sponsored by Commissioner Knight, to remove the language in the alternative decision that refers to metering as a "bottleneck" in the competitive market.

Summary: On November 12, 1998, Pacific Gas & Electric ("PG&E") representative Jana Corey initiated a telephone call to David Michelle Cooke, advisor to Commissioner Duque. Ms Corey stated, in PG&E's comments on the proposed alternate decision of Commissioners Duque and Bilas, PG&E had suggested that Conclusion of Law "5" be modified to strike the word "direct" from "direct transaction" and that the same modification should be made to the text in the first sentence of the first paragraph on page "25."
