SUBSCRIPTION INFORMATION

Subscription Notice for Draft Agenda Items

In compliance with Public Utilities Code Section 311.5, parties who wish to subscribe to receive draft agenda items may do so by writing to the Public Utilities Commission; Attention: Poly Arca, Room 1003; 505 Van Ness Avenue; San Francisco, CA 94102; or by calling (415) 703-1798. The cost for a one-year subscription to the entire public agenda package (which excludes Executive Session materials) is $1,000. You may also order a partial agenda package (energy agenda items only or telecommunication agenda items only) at the cost of $500 per year. The package you receive via mail will include only those agenda items available at the time of the agenda distribution date, which is usually 10 to 12 days prior to the Commission meeting. If agenda items (including revisions) are not ready on the distribution date, they will be made available at no charge in the lobby outside the Commission Auditorium at 9:00 a.m. on the morning of the Commission meeting, but not earlier.

In addition, the Commission will make draft agenda items available for viewing and photocopying (at 20 cents per page) at the Commission's Central Files Office (Room 2002), 505 Van Ness Avenue, San Francisco, and in the Los Angeles, San Diego, and the following field offices: El Centro, Eureka, Sacramento and San Bernardino. Since the agenda package will be mailed to these locations, it will be available at these locations a day or two after the distribution date. These locations will not receive agenda items that are not ready on the distribution date.

If an agenda item is held over to a subsequent Commission meeting, that agenda item and any revisions to that agenda item that were available on the morning of the initial Commission meeting (as well as any further available revisions) will be mailed in the Escutia package for the subsequent Commission meeting; the item and its revisions will also be available for viewing and photocopying in the Commission's Central Files Office and field offices as set forth above.

Intervenors who have a financial hardship determination pending or granted shall be eligible to receive draft agenda item packets at no charge.

The cost to receive the agenda only, without copies of draft agenda items, remains at $75 per year.

Subscription Notice for Daily Calendar and/or Agenda

Parties who wish to subscribe to the Daily Calendar and/or the Agenda may do so by writing to the Public Utilities Commission; Attention: Poly Arca, Room 1003; 505 Van Ness Avenue; San Francisco, CA 94102; or by calling (415) 703-1798. The subscription cost for the Daily Calendar is $225 per year. The Biweekly Daily Calendar is $50 per year. The Agenda is $75 per year. Checks are to be made payable to the Public Utilities Commission.

1/27/98	A97-12-004	Pacific Gas and Electric Company, for an order granting PG&E permission to use natural gas-based financial instruments to manage gas costs associated with natural gas purchased for utility electric generation
	A97-12-005	Pacific Gas and Electric Company, for an order granting PG&E permission to use gas-based financial instruments to manage the impact of Natural Gas Prices on the Cost of Electricity under existing power purchase agreements

Summary: On January 22, 1998, Jana Corey, Director of Regulatory Relations for Pacific Gas & Electric Company (PG&E), met with David Gamson, advisor to Cmmr. Neeper. Also present were: Junona Jonas, Vice President of Gas and Electric Supply, PG&E; and Ann Kozlovsky, Manager of Power Generation Fuels, PG&E. Kozlovsky reported on how PG&E's current Price Risk Management applications compare to a filing made in 11/96 by PG&E requesting authority to use price risk management tools to manage gas and electricity price volatility. Kozlovsky stated that in PG&E's current applications, PG&E is seeking authority to use gas-based financial instruments only, proposing to use these instruments to manage only the cost of fuel purchased for its generating resources and the cost of electricity purchases under existing power purchase contracts. Kozlovsky stated that PG&E is not seeking authority to use electricity-based financial instruments and is not seeking approval to hedge PX electricity purchases. Kozlovsky further stated that on 11/5/97 the CPUC approved Southern California Edison Company (Edison) Advice Letters 1247-E and 1247E-A authorizing Edison's recovery of costs associated with acquiring risk management tools pursuant to CPU Code Section 368(c). Edison proposes to use gas financial instruments to hedge natural gas prices used for generation and to hedge the impact of natural gas prices on the cost of electricity. Kozlovsky listed events which mitigate market power concerns raised in connection with PG&E's 11/96 application. Kozlovsky stated that PG&E proposes to bear all costs and losses as well as to receive all gains from its use of instruments to manage gas price risk. Kozlovsky stated that PG&E's proposal leaves ratepayers neutral while providing shareholders the means to manage price risks during the rate freeze period. Kozlovsky lastly stated that PG&E had received CPUC approval to use financial instruments and then taken a position on 8/1/97 equal to half of its exposure to gas and electricity prices for the remainder of 1997, PG&E would have offset the risk associated with recovery of CTCs, due to higher commodity prices by nearly $40 million. Jonas stated that PG&E is requesting authority to manage the impact of gas prices on the cost of existing power purchase agreements until the end of the rate freeze period. Jonas stated that PG&E proposes that it be allowed to continue using gas-based financial instruments to manage the cost of pre-existing contracts even after SRAC payments on the PX.

1/27/98 A96-08-001 Pacific Gas and Electric Company, for approval of valuation and categorization of non-nuclear generation related sunk costs eligible for recovery in the competition transition charge.

Summary: LATE FILED. On January 16, 1998, David Rubin, Manager of Service Analysis for Pacific Gas & Electric Company, (PG&E), spoke with David Gamson, advisor to Cmmr. Neeper, via telephone. Rubin spoke regarding whether the Proposed Decision (on Section 369 and the applicability of Competition Transition Charge (CTC) to new load) provides an opportunity for any cogenerator within PG&E's electric service territory to claim that they are not required to pay CTCs for new load they choose to serve. Rubin stated that he is not aware of any existing cogenerator or self-generator within PG&E's electric service territory that is not taking standby services from PG&E.

 I93-04-002 Commission Order Instituting Investigation on the Commission's own motion into open access and network architecture development of dominant carrier networks.

Summary: On January 26, 1998, representatives for ICG Telecom Group, Inc. (ICG), Teleport Communications Group, Inc. (TCG), and the California Cable Television Association (CCTA), met with Cmmr. Conlon, in San Francisco. Present were: Jose Jimenez, advisor to Cmmr. Conlon; Nick Selby, counsel for ICG; Karen Notsund, Director of Regulatory Affairs for TCG; Cynthia Walker, Regulatory Manager for CCTA; and Kent Heyman, counsel for MCG Communications, Inc. Materials, consisting of the opening comments filed by the FBC on the draft decision, were used. Walker urged the Commission not to make adjustments for missing wire centers and so-called "zero length loops" that are recommended in the draft decision. Notsund, Walker, and Selby discussed the reasons why the Commission should require Pacific to unbundle from the cost of cross connect circuits any costs attributable to Pacific's inclusion of a digital access cross connect system in the engineering of cross connect circuits, in the same manner that the Draft Decision would require Pacific to unbundle the costs of jack panels and signal regeneration equipment. Walker discussed reasons why the Commission should extend to DS-3 Entrance Facilities the same treatment the Draft Decision had recommended for DS-1 Entrance Facilities. The FBC also recommended that the Commission should complete the cost phase before embarking on the pricing phase for Pacific Bell's unbundled network elements and that the Commission should require Pacific to "map" all joint and common costs to their respective cost families to avoid cross-subsidies and double recovery.
