Summary: On February 20, 1998, Bruce Foster, Vice President of Regulatory Affairs for Southern California Edison Company (Edison), met with Cmmr. Neeper, in San Francisco. Also present were: David Gamson, advisor to Cmmr. Neeper; and Russell Worden, Regulatory Affairs Manager for Edison. Representatives for Edison stated that the Commission should carefully examine the facts pertinent to the Mojave Cogeneration reasonableness matter and, if the Commission concludes that some penalty is appropriate, which Edison does not believe the facts support, such penalty should be based upon a "liquidated damages" methodology instead of the "consequential damages" approach urged by the Office of Ratepayer Advocates (ORA). Representatives for Edison also stated that the financial analysis model used by ORA does not lend itself to identifying the separate cost impacts associated with each of the individual issues in the case.
