Summary: On March 2, 1998, Thomas MacBride, counsel for the California Association of Competitive Telecommunications Companies (CALTEL), sent a letter (attached to notice) to ALJ Bushey. Copies were also sent to: Cmmr. Neep; and Monica McCrary, Commission staff counsel. MacBride stated his belief that the Commission should not issue an advisory opinion on the issue of whether convertible debt or preferred shares should be deemed converted for purposes of determining whether a transfer of control had occurred. MacBride stated that since the application before the Commission had essentially been abandoned, it would be particularly inappropriate to issue an advisory opinion on an issue with respect to which the principal parties had neither the incentive or the resources to submit comments.
