1/15/99 A98-11-023 Pacific Gas and Electric Company, to establish performance-based ratemaking for electric and gas utility distribution service effective January 1, 2000

Summary: On January 12, 1999, Pacific Gas & Electric Co. ("PG&E") initiated oral and written ex parte communications at CPUC with Michelle Cooke, advisor to Commissioner Duque. The PG&E representatives initiating the communications were Jana Corey, Ray Williams, and David Rubin. Commencing the meeting, the PG&E attendees provided Ms Cooke a six (6) page summary of discussion points to be covered in the meeting. The pages were titled in the following order: (1) "Vision of Distribution Business," (2) "PBR Design Considerations," (3) "PG&E's Proposed Hybrid Formula—Electric Distribution," (4) "Symmetric Shared Earnings Mechanism," (5) "Performance Measures," and (6) "Wires Bypass Charge." Mr. Williams commenced the communications by stating PG&E's vision of the utility distribution business includes a natural monopoly for the wires and pipes portion of the business, and focuses on safe, reliable service. He said the utility's proposal provides an opportunity to earn a fair return over time, and decouples authorized revenues from costs. Mr. Williams described PG&E's "hybrid" proposal for the electric distribution portion of the PBR, noting the mechanisms for gas distribution customers is similar to the proposed for small electric distribution customers in keeping with agreements made in the Gas Accord. He also stated PG&E's proposal for large electric customers is an important factor for consideration, including the wires bypass charge. Mr. Rubin stated the wires bypass charge should be considered in this proceeding because the majority of irrigation district market activity is in PG&E's service territory.

 I94-04-032 Commission Order Instituting Investigation on its proposed policies governing restructuring California's electric services industry and reforming regulation.

Summary: On January 14, 1999, the Office of Ratepayer Advocates ("ORA") initiated a meeting with Commissioner Neepser and advisor David Gamson at CPUC. The ORA representatives, Ms Meri Levy and attorney Andrew Ulmer, commenced the meeting by providing the PUC officials a copy of Commissioner Neeper's Draft Alternate pages to the assigned administrative law judge's ("ALJ") draft opinion on "Qualifying Facility Contract Modification Issues." The ORA representative stated the Commission should not abandon the commensurate ratepayer benefit standard articulated in the ALJ's draft opinion as a means to adjudge the reasonableness of the cited modifications. ORA also stated that pursuant to 5 Cal.3d 370, the Commission should not limit its examination of reasonableness to anti-competitive behavior.
