3/8/99 A99-01-019 San Diego Gas & Electric Company, for authority to implement post rate freeze ratemaking mechanism.

Summary: THIS IS AN AUGMENTED NOTICE OF AN EX PARTE COMMUNICATION WHICH WAS FILED ON AND APPEARED IN THE CALENDAR OF March 3, 1999. On three (3) occasions in February, Sempra Entergy ("Sempra") representatives conveyed to PUC officials that San Diego Gas & Electric ("SDG&E") would likely end its rate freeze in June of this year as a result of actions taken by SDG&E to pay down its competitive transaction costs ("CTC") and the status of the current CTC balance. The 3 meetings were held on 4, 9, and 10 February, 1999, respectively, with (1) Commissioner Neeper, (2) President Bilas and his advisor, Dorothy Duda, and (3) Commissioner Duque and his advisor, Michelle Cooke. The composition of the Sempra contingent differed slightly from meeting to meeting. For the 2/4/99 meeting, Kimberly Freeman, Lee Schavrien, and Bill Reed attended. The same contingent less Mr. Schavrien attended the 2/9/99 meeting. Sempra also stated the following: that actions to end the rate freeze include crediting any gain on the sale from Station "A" and South Bay power plants to CTC and requesting the transfer of any 1997 and 1998 PBR revenue sharing amounts to be credited to CTC. The Sempra representatives added that filing to end the rate freeze would be done soon. The proposed schedule for the filing was provided each PUC official, and the Commission was then urged to consider the timing of a decision on the application. A chart was also provided each PUC official comparing electric rates for various customer classes to illustrate what the rates looked like before and what they may look like after the rate freeze. Four (4) sheets provided each PUC official were headlined as follows: (1) "actions taken by SDG&E to end the rate freeze as soon as possible," (2) current status of SDG&E's CTC (Millions of Dollars)," (3) "application to end the rate freeze" with dates shown from 2/18/99 to 6/24/99, and (4) "Comparison of Electric Rates" with graphs depicting rates from 6/96 through 7/99." The sheets were attached to the filer's Notice of Ex Parte Communication filed on 3/8/99.

4/1/99 A98-05-004 Pacific Gas and Electric Company, to establish the eligibility and seek recovery of certain electric industry restructuring implementation costs as provided for in Public Utilities Code Section 376.

Summary: On March 29, 1999, Pacific Gas and Electric Company ("PG&E") initiated oral ex parte communications at CPUC with Commissioner Neeper and his advisor, David Gamson. The PG&E representatives initiating the communication were Jana Corey, Dede Hapner, and William Manheim. Ms Hapner said PG&E has continued to support direct access implementation and has made very effort to accommodate changes to the new market. She said the parties spent a lot of time on settling, and that PG&E is dismayed with the denial of the settlement. Mr. Manheim said that while TURN and Enron filed limited objections to the settlement, neither suggested that it should be rejected. He added PG&E's due process rights will be violated if the Commission denies settlement and subjects PG&E to the outcome of a case litigated by another utility. Mr. Manheim further discussed guidelines in the Southern California Edison proposed decision and options in the PG&E settlement. He continued by stating if ineligible costs are allocated to "the market" through direct fees, that costs would be high enough for each individual direct access customer to negatively affect the direct access market. Mr. Manheim concluded by stating the proposed decision does not appear to allow recovery of procurement costs from bundled customers through a PX surcharge.

4/1/99 A98-05-007 Pacific Gas and Electric Company, for authority to adopt a revenue-sharing mechanism and other prerequisites for new non-tariffed products and services.

Summary: On March 29, 1999, Pacific Gas and Electric Company ("PG&E") initiated oral communications at CPUC with David Gamson, advisor to Commissioner Neeper. The PG&E representatives conducting the communications were Jana Corey and David Rubin. Ms Corey said PG&E supports Commission President Bilas' alternate decision ("AD"). In reference to an Office of Ratepayer Advocates ("ORA") ex parte filing of 3/3/99, PG&E asserted they were required to file an advice letter prior to offering any new non tariffed products and services, thus countering the ORA assertion that PG&E had no set regulatory forum in which to review incremental costs and net revenues. Mr. Rubin further added the company's semi annual filing of revenues and costs associated with all products and services is the appropriate forum for routine reporting. He concluded by saying that a net revenue sharing mechanism is consistent with Rule VII of the affiliate transaction rules, despite ORA's contrary assertion in their comments on the AD.

Summary: On March 29, 1999, Jana Corey of Pacific Gas & Electric Co. ("PG&E")

telephoned Dorothy Duda, advisor to Commission President Bilas. She stated if instructed to do so by the Commission, PG&E would be willing to file supplemental testimony in the performance based ratemaking ("PBR") proceeding to address the non tariffed products and services issue. Inasmuch as PG&E does not have an existing PBR mechanism, Ms Corey said the utility to date has been unable to offer any new non tariffed products and services.

Summary: On March 30, 1999, the Office of Ratepayer Advocates ("ORA") conveyed oral ex parte communications to Commissioner Duque. This occurred during an All Party meeting scheduled by the commissioner. ORA representatives attending were Tom Thompson and Jonathan Bromson. Four (4) representatives from Pacific Gas & Electric Co. ("PG&E") were in attendance and one (1) from Southern California Edison. President Bilas and his advisor, Dorothy Duda. ORA stated they preferred the ALJ's proposed decision over Commission President Bilas' alternate decision ("AD"). Adoption of PG&E's net revenue sharing proposal, ORA stated, would place a significant regulatory burden on ORA and the Commission because incremental costs would have to be closely reviewed for reasonableness in order to verify profits to be shared. This would expand regulatory oversight according to the ORA representatives. ORA stated a preference for gross revenue sharing because this method would be less burdensome. ORA concluded by stating the AD found profits over the short run were highly unlikely, suggesting that assets for which ratepayers pay a return and depreciation expense would be utilized for long term company needs without compensation to ratepayers.

Summary: On March 29, 1999, the Office of Ratepayer Advocates ("ORA") initiated oral ex parte communications with Commission President Bilas and his advisor, Dorothy Duda. ORA's Tom Thompson and Jonathan Bromson told President Bilas why ORA preferred the ALJ's proposed decision over his alternate decision. Adoption of Pacific Gas & Electric's ("PG&E") net revenue sharing proposal, ORA stated, would place a significant regulatory burden on ORA and the Commission because incremental costs would have to be closely reviewed for reasonableness in order to verify profits to be shared. This would expand regulatory oversight according to the ORA representatives. ORA stated a preference for gross revenue sharing because this method would be less burdensome. ORA further cautioned that there should be no presumption that revenue sharing for non tariffed products and services ("NTP&S") is appropriate for inclusion in PG&E's PBR mechanism because it believes that earnings from new NTP&S should not be blended under the same incentive mechanism with regulated earnings.

Summary: On March 31, 1999 AT&T Communications of California, Inc. ("AT&T") initiated oral and written ex parte communications at CPUC with Commissioner Neeper and his advisor, Fassil Fenikile. Accompanying John Sumpter of AT&T was Nikayla Nail of MCI WorldCom. Mr. Sumpter stated there were four problems with the draft decision: (1) eliminating the ability of local exchange carrier (LEC) billers to disconnect local for non payment of toll, (2) mandatory implementation of the un-adopted workshop report from the FCC on "cramming best practices," (3) requiring a unique, California specific carrier identifier on the carrier's bill page, and (4) limiting the exercise of customer letters of authorization (LOA's) to within 30 days of the date of signature. Ms. Nail stated these proposals harmed competition. The seven (7) page written packet provided the commissioner amplified each of the aforesaid problem areas.

- A98-05-006 Public Utilities Code Section 376
San Diego Gas & Electric Company, for (1) a determination of eligibility for recovery under Public Utilities Code section 376 of certain cost categories and activities, (2) a finding of reasonableness of the costs incurred through 12/31/97, (3) approval of an audit methodology for verifying the eligibility of section 376 costs for recovery from 1998 through 2001, and (4) approval of a section 376 balancing account mechanism to recover eligible costs
- A98-05-015 Southern California Edison Company, to address restructuring implementation costs pursuant to Public Utilities Code section 376, in compliance with Ordering Paragraph 18 of D97-11-074

Summary: On March 30, 1999, the Office of Ratepayer Advocates ("ORA") conveyed oral ex parte communications at CPUC to Commission President Bilas and his advisor, Dorothy Duda. The occasion was an "all party" meeting. Parties sending one or more representatives included Southern California Edison Co. ("Edison"), Pacific Gas & Electric Co. ("PG&E"), San Diego Gas & Electric Co. ("SDG&E"), The Utility Reform Network ("TURN"), Energy Producers and Users Coalition ("EPUC"), California Association of Cogenerators ("CAC"), California Industrial Users ("CIU"), California Large Energy Consumers Association ("CLECA"), University of California/California State University systems, and California Manufacturers Assoc. ("CMA"). ORA was represented by Jonathan A. Bromson, Christopher Danforth, and Sean Casey. ORA stated the proposed decision of Administrative Law Judge Minkin and the alternate decision of President Bilas both misread PU § 376 as requiring that all restructuring costs, and not just restructuring implementation costs, received "376 treatment" to be recoverable at all from bundled ratepayers. ORA stated the utilities should have the opportunity to recover reasonable, ongoing restructuring related costs that benefit the furtherance of a competitive electric generation marketplace. Such costs, ORA stated, would not merit "376" treatment. ORA added that the proposed decisions would prevent the utilities from having a realistic chance of recovering necessary costs, perhaps causing utilities in the future to curtail programs that would benefit the market. ORA postulated the Commission would not have found the PG&E and SDG&E settlements to be unreasonable had it accepted the principle that restructuring costs were not only "implementation" costs and could be recovered from ratepayers under certain circumstances.
