Summary: On May 7, 1999 the Office of Ratepayer Advocates ("ORA") told Commissioner Duque they supported the proposed decision ("PD") in the Revenue Adjustment Proceeding. ORA told the commissioner that PUC has discretion when allocating restructuring costs, that all customers should pay for PX start up costs, and that there was a need for a reasonableness review of memorandum and balancing accounts before disbursing the funds. The communication occurred during an "all party" meeting at CPUC initiated by Commissioner Duque. ORA representatives participating in the meeting were Scarlett Liang-Uejio, Chris Blunt, Bill Gibson, Sean Casey, and Jim Price. An attendance sheet was affixed to the Notice of Ex Parte Communication. Other parties in attendance were Sempra, Pacific Gas & Electric Co., Southern California Edison, Enron Corp., California Farm Bureau, WPTF, and CLECA.

Summary: On May 13, 1999 the ICG Telecom Group, Inc. ("ICG") faxed a May 5, 1999 order from the Ohio Public Utilities Commission to Commissioner Neeper's office. The order in the Ohio case involved a complaint filed by ICG and others against Ameritech Ohio regarding the payment of reciprocal compensation. The order denied Ameritech Ohio's request for a rehearing on an earlier ruling in favor of ICG's position. The Ohio ruling was fourteen (14) pages in length.

Summary: On May 17, 1999 the ICG Telecom Group, Inc. ("ICG") urged Commissioner Duque to reject Pacific Bell's ("PacBell") position on reciprocal compensation for ISP-bound traffic. ICG told the commissioner that PacBell's position to deny reciprocal compensation would cause harm to California business and rural users inasmuch as the Internet is becoming an important part of California's economy. ICG said thirty (30) or so states agree with the ICG position, and that Federal Communications Commission ("FCC") while ruling that local calls to ISP's are interstate, nonetheless has stated that state regulatory commissions are free to treat such calls as local for purposes of reciprocal compensation. If PacBell's position were adopted, ICG said, California businesses would be at a disadvantage compared to businesses in other states. Additional details were provided on why ICG required such compensation, and that PacBell and SBC appeared unwilling to pay that compensation because the CLEC's were their competitors. ICG further pointed out PacBell's testimony in R95-04-043 in which PacBell said the only viable means of rating calls was on the basis of determining distance between rate centers identified by NPA/NXX codes. A twenty two (22) page written handout was provided Commissioner Duque comprising an Ohio PUC "entry on rehearing" in a ICG complaint against Ameritech Ohio on the issue of reciprocal compensation and additional ICG comments on the entry. In the ex parte meeting initiated by ICG and held at CPUC, the ICG representatives involved were Nick Selby, Cindy Schonhaut, and Bruce Holdridge.

5/18/99 A99-04-002 Pacific Gas and Electric Company, for an order under Section 851 of the California Public Utilities Code to sell and convey to the City of Gilroy a streetlight system.

Summary: On May 5, 1999 the City Administrator of Gilroy wrote various PUC staff and asked that the Commission expeditiously approve the sale of the city's street light system from Pacific Gas & Electric Co. ("PG&E") to the city. The City Administrator, Jay Baksa, stated in his letter that the city had coordinated the matter with the Office of Ratepayer Advocates ("ORA") since the original agreement was first conceived three (3) years ago, and that both the city and PG&E agreed with ORA that ratepayers should not be responsible for the rate differential between the relatively high cost of PG&E maintenance of the system and the relatively low cost of maintenance that the city foresees from the agreement. Due to the tax relief from the agreement that Gilroy residents anticipate, the city asked for expeditious approval of the application.
