10/18/99 A98-05-038 Pacific Bell, for authority for pricing flexibility and to increase prices of certain operator services, to reduce the number of monthly directory assistance call allowances, and adjust prices for four centrex optional features

Summary: On October 13, 1999, James M. Tobin, attorney for the County of Los Angeles (LA County), wrote a letter (attached to the notice) to Cmmr. Bilas, Cmmr. Duque, Cmmr. Neeper, Cmmr. Hyatt, and Cmmr. Wood, in San Francisco. The letter responded to a letter Pacific Bell (Pacific) sent to each Commissioner on September 21, 1999 and similar statements made by Pacific in other ex parte contacts with the Commissioners. LA County stated that to the extent that the Commission determine that a factual basis exists for the information contained in Pacific's September 21 letter and other ex parte communications, it must dismiss the application without prejudice and require Pacific to refile a new application that includes the arguments and "supporting" data it refused to provide during the hearings and now seeks to introduce after the record has been closed. LA County also addressed misstatements of fact contained in Pacific's September 21 letter. LA County stated that contrary to Pacific's allegation that the Commission has found overhead and common costs "on average to be 46% above incremental costs," no Commission decision reaches such a conclusion. In addition, Pacific's statement that "the cost [the incremental cost plus 46% it argues should be basis for the DA rate] does not include profit" is at odds with both D.96-08-021, which includes cost of capital in the TSLRIC cost it adopts, and how utility are measured.
