	I97-08-002	Commission Order Instituting Investigation, on the Commission's own motion to consider adoption of rules applicable to Interexchange Carriers for the transfer of customers including establishing penalties for unauthorized transfer

Summary: On December 9, 1999, Cynthia Marshall, Vice President – Regulatory for Pacific Bell (Pacific), met with Fassil Fenikile, advisor to Cmmr. Neep. Also present was Sandy McGreevy, Director, for Pacific. A handout material was provided and attached to the notice. Pacific representatives discussed their concern with the second draft decision from ALJ Bushey in the Slamming and Cramming Rulemaking. Pacific's representatives stressed that the issues facing consumers have changed during the 2-year period associated with this Rulemaking. Finally, Pacific's representatives stated that Pacific would continue to implement safeguards to protect its customers. However, Pacific strongly opposes Ordering Paragraph 4 as going beyond what is needed to eliminate the problems associated with Slamming and Cramming. Pacific representatives stated that the impact of this Ordering Paragraph is such a significant change to a long-standing policy, that it must be fully examined in order to reduce the secondary effects of not paying legitimate, authorized charge
