WHEREAS: The revision to said rule has the effect of continuing a practice followed for some years but which practice, with General Order No. 96-A becoming effective on March 1, 1962, may now cause a potential increase in charges for limited periods of time by continuing the above described practice, and

WHEREAS: Continuation of the said practice is hereby found to be in the public interest under these particular circumstances, and

WHEREAS: Said utility also requests authority under Section 491 of the Public Utilities Code to make said sheet effective on less than 30 days, namely on May 15, 1962, and therefore, good cause appearing.
