GENERAL INFORMATION

San Francisco and Northern California

Cosmopolitan flair, spectacular scenery and cultural diversity make San Francisco one of the top destinations in the world. Perennial favorites include Fisherman's Wharf, Chinatown, the cable cars, the Golden Gate Bridge, and Golden Gate Park. Its shopping hub, Union Square, anchors a who's who of world famous stores. The City is acclaimed as home of the "World's Best Restaurants." And visitors will quickly discover the charm of "the neighborhoods." Headquarters of a vast vacationland, San Francisco is within easy driving distance of the High Sierra resorts of Lake Tahoe and Yosemite; the scenic Monterey-Carmel peninsula; California's wine country; Sausalito and Tiburon just over the Golden Gate Bridge; the East Bay cities of Oakland and Berkeley; family attractions in Vallejo; the spectacular Mendocino Coast and the bronzed hills of Livermore Valley. Surrounded on three sides by the Pacific Ocean and San Francisco Bay, San Francisco's compact 47 square miles (125 sq. km.) crowd the tip of the San Francisco Peninsula. The City is built on 43 hills.

Weather/What to Wear

San Francisco is blessed with a temperate marine climate and enjoys mild weather year-round. Temperatures seldom rise above 70 degrees F (21 degrees C) or fall below 40 degrees F (5 degrees C). Morning and evening fog rolls in during the summer months, but rarely persist. Visitors are most comfortable with a light jacket or coat handy for cool evening wear. Lightweight summer clothes are seldom practical in San Francisco.
