26.2 APPLICATION OF SPECIAL PROVISION OF FACILITIES AND SERVICE (Cont'd)

B. Alternate Routing or Standby Facilities for Exchange Service

Normally, facility arrangements between a serving central office and a customer are furnished over the most economical route as determined by the Utility up to and including its local loop demarcation point. Where an applicant/customer requests a serving arrangement furnished in a manner other than the most economical route as determined by the Utility, the arrangements requested are generally one of the following:

1. Furnish facilities over the same physical route but in two or more different cables. Generally, the cables would be separated but share common poles, manholes or duct runs.
2. Facilities furnished over two or more separate routes. This would be alternate routing, i.e., facilities would be furnished in separate cables, separate routes and not share common pole line, ducts or manholes. The facilities could be used to separate services between the central office and the Utility's local loop demarcation point on the customer's premises over the two or more routes, possibly providing a better opportunity for continuity of service of the communications services provided.
3. Standby facilities are those furnished to provide redundancy for all or a portion of the services furnished between a central office and a customer's premises. Such redundancy could be provided over an alternate route or in the same route via a different cable. In addition, equipment that is under the operational control of the customer located at the customer's premises is the customer's responsibility. The Utility is responsible only up to, and including, its local loop demarcation point for the provision of such service.

26.3 CHARGES FOR SPECIAL PROVISION OF FACILITIES AND SERVICE

- A. Charges based on costs are applicable to special provision of facilities and service at the discretion of the Utility. An advance payment of 100% of estimated cost will be required by the Utility to protect its investment. The amount of the advance payment will be credited to the customer's account upon completion of the construction and the billing for the service arrangement.¹
- B. Charges may be quoted based on the material used and labor required that the Utility may provide in connection with the outside plant and central office facilities to provide the arrangement requested.
- C. Application of Charges
 - 1. Additional cable may be required, which may not be reusable in place when the customer disconnects such a service arrangement. This could include portions of cable facilities along existing rights-of-way or dedicated streets where such cable was furnished for the use of one customer. Charges applicable to the facilities furnished are reflective of the material furnished. In addition, labor is required to place and terminate the facilities placed. Additional labor may be required to rearrange existing facilities to accommodate the additional facilities placed. Service connections may also be affected and may require additions and rearrangements to which charges would apply.
 - 2. Furnishing facilities over the same route but in two or more different cables.
 - a. Where distribution facilities are installed with possibility of reuse, the charges for the additional cable will be based on the facilities furnished.
 - b. If rearrangement of existing outside plant facilities may accommodate the applicant/customer's request without the addition of new plant, such costs will be the applicable charge to the applicant/customer for the furnishing of separate outside plant facilities.
 - c. Facilities requiring the reinforcement of an existing route, and which would not be constructed by the Utility except to provide the facility arrangement requested by the customer, will be charged to the customer based on cost to provide the reinforcement.

NOTE 1: Includes Income Tax gross-up amount, as listed in Schedule Cal.P.U.C. No. A2.1.3,D.
